His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint Edward Michael Ward, of Bangor, Esq. to be His Majesty's Secretary of Legation at the Cour of the Duke of Tuscany.

In the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty.

GEORGE, P. R.

OUR will and pleasure is, that all French vessels and cargoes that may have been captured or detained by reason of the late declaration of hostilities against France, on any voyage to or from Martinique or Marseilles, and also all vessels and cargoes captured on a voyage from any French port, at which the white flag was hoisted at the time when the vessel sailed from her port of lading, shall be released forthwith, on payment of such expences as have been duly incurred in consequence of such capture or detention.

Given at the Palace of Carlton-House, this twenty-sixth day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in the fifty-fifth year of Our reign.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, (Countersigned) BATHURST.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of August 1815,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty, until six weeks after the commencement of the next session of Parliament, to regulate the trade and commerce carried on between His Majesty's subjects and the inhabitants of the United States of America," His Majesty in Council is authorised, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to give such directions, and to make such regulations with respect to duties, drawbacks, or otherwise for carrying on the trade and commerce between the people and territories belonging to the Crown of Great Britain and the people and territories of the said United States, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, until six weeks after the commencement of the next session of Parliament, there shall be paid on the importation into this kingdom from the territories of the United States of America, in vessels of the said States, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, being of the growth, production, or manufacture of the said territories, the same duties of Customs that are by them payable on such goods, wares, or merchandise when imported from the United States in British vessels, and no other or higher duties of Customs; and it is hereby further ordered, that on the exportation of any goods, wares, or merchandise, the growth, production, or manufacture of His Majesty's territories in Europe from this kingdom to the territories of the United States, in vessels of the said States, there shall be paid the same duties as are by law payable on such goods, wares, or merchandise when exported to the said States in British vessels, and none other or higher duties; and it is hereby further ordered, that, on the exportation from this kingdom to the United States, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, of the growth, production, or manufacture of His Majesty's territories in Europe, in vessels of the said States, there shall be paid and allowed the same bounties as are paid and allowed on such goods, wares, and merchandise when exported to the said States in British vessels: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd.

No. 17061.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that an anonymous letter has been received by the Reverend Reginald Bligh, Rector of Romaldkirk, near Barnard Castle, threatening to assassinate his family and burn his dwelling house. And whereas between the 8th and 9th instant, a barn, containing a considerable quantity of hay, belonging to the said Mr. Bligh, was burned and destroyed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felonious acts abovementioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually sent the letter abovementioned, and the person who set fire to the said barn), who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by Anthony Harrison, Esq. of Barnard Castle.

Whitehall, September 1, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some short time since an anonymous letter was received by Mr. Painter, of Mixbury, in the county of Oxford, threatening to burn his house, &c.; and whereas it has been represented to the Prince Regent, that, on Saturday last, the barns and ricks belonging to the said Mr. Painter, were set on fire and consumed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in setting fire to the said barns and ricks, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the same on fire) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by J. J. Barber Beaumont, Esq. Managing Director of the County Fire-Office, Southampton-Street.

Whitehall, September 4, 1815.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, between the hours of ten o'clock on the night of Monday the 28th, and two o'clock on the morning of Tuesday the 29th ultimo, the dwelling-house of Jane Smith, of Herrington, in the county of Durham, spinster, was maliciously set on fire and destroyed, and Isabella Young, the servant girl, barbarously murdered;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious acts, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set the said dwelling-house on fire, and perpetrated the said murder) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Jane Smith to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, extend, enlarge, and explain the several Acts of Parliament now in force relating to the Liverpool Docks; and to alter, amend, and extend the schedule of rates upon goods, wares, and merchandises brought into the said docks, or any of them; and also the rates upon tonnage; and to impose new and additional rates upon goods and tonnage, where the same may be deemed necessary; and for the better prevention of frauds and errors, and ascertaining and regulating returns for over entries; and the time within which the same may be made, and for further power for building the north basin of the Prince's Dock, and taking and paying for any land required for such purpose out of the fund appropriated for the Prince's Dock; or such other fund as may be thought fit; and to explain and amend the provisions relating to the transfer of the fort, and the payment of the money for such transfer; and to explain, amend, and make further provision in relation to the purchase of land for the docks and basins, made, or authorised to be made, under the said Acts; and for additional powers and authorities for the preservation of the harbour of the Port of Liverpool, and the River Mersey, and prevention of throwing ballast therein; and for additional powers to borrow money for the purpose of the said Act, and of the new Act upon life and other annuities; and to amend the said Act in relation to redeemable bonds; and for the better regulation of the auditing and closing the accounts of the Treasurer; and for the better prevention of thefts, frauds, and other depredations in and about the said docks, quays, and other works thereto belonging, to authorise the appointment of a Police Magistrate, with power to provide a competent remuneration for such Magistrate; and, generally, to amend and render more effectual the provisions of the Acts now in force in relation to the said docks; and to make such further and additional regulations, and give such further and additional powers, as may be necessary, for carrying into execution the purposes aforesaid, and the purposes of the said Act; and also for authority to make further regulations respecting carts and carmen, within the said town of Liverpool.

Statham, Hughes, and Foster, Solicitors.

Notice is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for amending and enlarging the powers of an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, and improving the streets and other public passages and places which are or shall be made upon a piece of ground belonging to the Brewers Company, in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex."

Bury Hutchinson, Solicitor, Brewers-Hall, Aldermabury, September 8, 1815.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, to increase, alter, and regulate the rates of tonnage, and wharfage, cramage, and other dues and duties authorised to be taken by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a navigable canal from the River Kennet, at or near the town of Newbury, in the county of Berks, to the River Avon, at or near the city of Bath, and also certain navigable cuts therein described;" and to authorise the receiving and taking such tolls, rates, and duties for tonnage, wharfage, and cramage of goods carried on the said canal, or landed or deposited on any wharf adjoining or near thereto, as to Parliament shall seem fit; and also to alter and amend the powers and provisions of the aforesaid Act, and of the several other Acts passed for making the said canal.

Ward and Merriman, Solicitors. Marlborough, September 7, 1815.

Grand Union Canal.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and explain the Act passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for making and maintaining the Grand Union Canal, and to enable the Company of Proprietors of the said Canal, to raise a sum, not exceeding ten thousand-pounds, (by charging each share with a proportion thereof, in case the Holders or Proprietors shall not previously have paid six pounds per share to the Company's Treasurer).—1st September 1816.

R. C. Sale, Solicitor.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, for paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, regulating, ornamenting, and otherwise improving and keeping in repair the several streets, squares, quadrangles, circuses, terraces, public courts, passages, and places, which are now forming or making, or which shall or may be hereafter formed or made, in the several parishes of Saint James, Westminster, Saint Martin in the Fields, and Saint George, Hanover-Square, in the county of Middlesex, by virtue and in execution of the powers of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making a more convenient communication from Mary-le-Bone-Park, and the northern parts of the metropolis, in the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, to Charing-Cross, within the liberty of Westminster; and for making a more convenient sewage for the same;" and also for the better paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, regulating, ornamenting, and otherwise improving and keeping in repair the several streets, terraces, courts, mews, passages, and places, called Mary-le-Bone-Street; Titchborne-Street, Silver-Street, Brewer-Street, Air-Street, Vine-Street, Little Vine-Street, Swallow-Street, Leicester-Street; Beak-Street, Glasshouse-Street, Vigo-Lane, Chapel-Court, Jernyn-Street, Bury-Street, Duke-Street, Great Ryder-Street, Little Ryder-Street, King-Street, Saint James's-Square, Charles-Street, Saint James's-Square, Saint James's-Palace, Saint James's-Market, Market-Lane, Norris-Street, the Haymarket, so much of Piccadilly as extends from Saint James's-Street west to the Haymarket east, Pall-Mall, Cleveland-Row, Saint James's-Street, the Stable-Yard, the King's-Mews, Great Suffolk-Street, Little Suffolk-Street, Whitcomb-Street, Whitehall-Place, Cockspur-Street, Warwick-Street by Cockspur-Street, Spring-Gardens, New-Street Spring-Gardens, Spring-Garden-Terrace, Charing-Cross, as far as Saint Martin's-Lahe, that part of Charing-Cross-Street extending from Charing-Cross to Parliament-Street, Great Scotland-Yard, Middle Scotland-Yard, Little Scotland-Yard, Privy-Gardens, King-Street, Westminster, Eagle-Street, and Wells-Street, situate in the said several parishes of Saint James, Westminster, Saint Martin in the Fields, Saint George, Hanover-Square, and in the parishes of Saint Margaret, Westminster, Saint Giles in the Fields, and Saint Pancras, and within the verge of the Palaces of Whitehall and Saint James's; and also all the several public courts, passages, and places in the same streets; and for repealing, altering, and amending so much of the said abovementioned Act of Parliament, and of any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, as relates to the paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching any or either of the streets, squares, quadrangles, circuses, terraces, mews, public courts, passages, and places abovementioned; and also for the altering and amending a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for paving and otherwise improving certain streets and other public passages and places which are or shall be made upon certain pieces of ground belonging to His Majesty, in the several parishes of Saint Mary-le-Bone and Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, called Mary-le-Bone-Park;" and that it is intended to be proposed that the Commissioners to be appointed by the said intended Act shall be thereby empowered to increase and alter the tolls, rates, or duties now existing for the paving, cleansing, watching, and lighting, the same streets and other places.

By order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues,

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made during the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for an Act, to commute the vicarial tithes and dues payable to the Vicar of the parish and parish church of St. Michael-upon-Wyre, in the county palatine of Lancaster, to release the said parish from the payment of the said tithes and dues, and to secure the payment of an annuity (variable according to the price of corn) to the present Vicar and his successors for ever, in lieu thereof.

Pilkington and Son; and Harrison, Solicitors.

Preston, September 2, 1815.

Notice is hereby given; that application is intended to be made to Parliament by the Grand Junction Water-Works Company in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of an Act, of the fifty-first of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for confirming certain articles of agreement entered into between the Company of Proprietors of the Grand Junction Canal and certain persons; for supplying with water the inhabitants of the parish of Paddington, and the parishes and streets adjacent, in the county of Middlesex," so far as regards the mode of raising the money thereby authorised to be raised by the said Company, for the purposes in the said Act mentioned.

W. M. Coe, Chief Clerk and Secretary, Union-Street, Bond-Street, September 5, 1815.

Notice is hereby given to the proprietors of lands and estates in the parishes of Braunton and Heanton Punchardon, in the county of Devon, and to all other persons whom it may concern, that at the next session of Parliament, a petition will be presented to the Honourable House of Commons, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament, for dividing, draining, embanking, and improving all those lands and marsh grounds in the parishes of Braunton and Heanton Punnardou, in the county of Devon, called Vellator, Wrafton otherwise Wraftington Marsh, and Hørsey Island; and also for making and maintaining a navigable cut or canal to communicate with Braunton Brook, and to commence at the northernmost or higher part of the said marsh called Vellator, and to extend unto the southernmost or lower part of Wrafton otherwise Wraftington Marsh; and that such cut or navigable canal is intended to be made and pass through the several parishes of Braunton and Heanton Punnardou aforesaid.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is about to be made to Parliament in the ensuing sessions, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable certain persons to form themselves into a joint stock company, for the purpose of purchasing of or accepting and taking a lease from the Right Reverend Lord Bishop of London of certain waters and springs, and their conduits and appurtenances, in the several parishes of Mary-le-Bone and Paddington, in the county of Middlesex, for better supplying the inhabitants of the cities of London and Westminster, and the suburbs thereof, with spring water.

Notice is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for providing more effectually for the performance of Divine service in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, by erecting a new parish church in the said parish, and also by erecting such new chapel or chapels as may be found necessary, or by purchasing one or more chapels or buildings answering the purpose of chapels, already erected within the said parish, and converting the same into parochial chapels, and also for purchasing land for the purposes aforesaid; and for enabling individuals and bodies politic or corporate to sell, exchange, and convey such lands, tenements, and hereditaments as may be necessary, and to enfranchise copyhold and leasehold lands and premises, on receiving proper compensation for the same; and for raising money by a rate or rates on the owners, reuters, and occupiers of lands and tenements within the said parish, for the purposes aforesaid; and also for powers to appropriate the present parish church to such purposes as may be thought most proper and expedient, and to regulate and alter, as may be requisite and necessary, the tenure of certain church lands within the same parish, and to enable those who are or shall be Trustees of the same, by exchange of any part of such lands, or by leases for years, or otherwise, to enlarge the proceeds thereof, and render the same useful and beneficial in and about the purposes aforesaid.—Dated this 9th day of September 1815.

John Tims, 56, Upper Charlotte-Street,
Fitzroy-Square, St. Pancras.

BANKERS' LICENCES.

Stamp-Office, London, September 16, 1815.

Notice is hereby given, that all licences granted to Bankers or others, to issue promissory notes, payable to the bearer on demand, and allowed to be re-issued, will expire on the 10th of October next, and that they must be renewed within one month from that day, or penalties will be incurred.

That a separate licence must be taken out for every place where the notes shall be issued, in England, unless the persons to be licensed had issued their notes, at several places, before the 2d July 1808, and, originally obtained one licence for all such places; in which case only, they will be again included in one licence. The duty on each licence is £30.

That every licence must specify the names and places of abode of the persons to be licensed, and the name of the place or places where, and the name of the bank, as well as the partnership name, style, or firm, under which the notes are to be issued; and licences to persons in partnership must specify the names, and places of abode, of all the persons concerned in the partnership, whether all their names appear on the notes or not; and in default thereof the licences will be void. With these particulars, a specimen of the notes must also be left at this Office, by persons applying for such licences.

That a penalty of £100 for every offence, is imposed on the issuing of promissory notes, of the description aforesaid, without a licence, or at any other place, or under any other name, style or firm, than is specified in the licence.

This notice is given that all persons concerned may conform to the law, and avoid the penalties for which they will otherwise be prosecuted; and that persons, applying for licences, may come prepared with all the requisite particulars to be inserted therein, without which the licences cannot be filled up, so as to protect the parties against penalties.

By order of the Commissioners,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

Admiralty-Office, September 12, 1815.
