TUESDAY, AUGUST 19, 1845.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of June 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws respecting the office of county coroner," it is enacted, that, when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts, for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it should be lawful for the said justices, in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying, that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof should be given to the coroner or coroners of such county as thereafter provided; and it is thereby further enacted, that the clerk of the peace should give notice of any such resolution to every coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition would be taken by the said justices into consideration, and the justices should confer with every such coroner who should attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose, touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of inhabitants, the nature of their employment, and such other circumstances as should appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of that Act; and such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, should be certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition should be agreed to, and the clerk of the peace for such county should forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every coroner for such county; and it is further enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if she should think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition which might be presented to Her by any coroner of the same county, concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it should seem fit to Her Majesty, to direct the issue of a writ de coronatoris eligendo, for the purpose of authorising the election of an additional coroner above the number of those who had been theretofore customarily elected in such county, to order that such county should be divided into such and so many districts, for the purposes of that Act, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within such district the court for the election of coroner for such district should be holden, as hereinafter provided; and every such Order should be published in the London Gazette :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Oxford, in general quarter sessions assembled, at Oxford, in and for the said county, on Monday the thirtieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, did resolve, that a humble petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying for such division or alteration as hereinafter mentioned, and did adjourn the further consideration thereof to the adjournment of the general quarter sessions of the peace, held at the County-hall, at Oxford, in and for the said county of Oxford, on Saturday the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, due notice thereof having been given to all the coroners of the said county; and two of the justices attending such adjourned sessions did thereby certify, under their hands and seals, that such petition was agreed to :

And whereas the said justices have since presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing

“ That, it having seemed expedient to the justices at large of the said county of Oxford, that the county should be divided into four districts for the purposes of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act to amend “ the law respecting the office of county coroner,” it was resolved by the said justices in quarter session assembled, that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying, that such division be made, and that thereupon the justices adjourned the further consideration of such petition until the said first day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, notice thereof having, in the interval, been given to the several coroners of the said county, three out of the four of whom on the said day personally attended the meeting of the justices for that purpose, who conferred with the said

coroners touching the said petition ; and, therefore, having due regard to the size and nature of each district, the number of its inhabitants, the nature of their employments and other circumstances, humbly praying, that the said county may be divided into the four following districts, and representing that as the said county is almost entirely an agricultural one, having, beyond that circumstance, no peculiarity in it, the reason upon which the subjoined division is founded, has been confined to its equality in area and population as far as practicable ; and that in endeavouring to arrive at such equality, consideration has been had to the fact, that the University of Oxford, the parliamentary borough of Oxford, the borough of New Woodstock (as prior to the Boundaries Act, third of William the Fourth, cap. 64), the municipal borough of Banbury, and the corporate town of Henley-upon-Thames, within the said county, severally have coroners of their own to the exclusion of the county coroners.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all cases in which British vessels of less burthen than sixty tons are not required by law to take pilots, to exempt foreign vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any of the ports of the United Kingdom, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the amendment of the law respecting pilots and pilotage, and also for the better preservation of floating lights, buoys, and beacons," it is enacted, that the several Acts therein recited, and all and every the clauses, provisions, powers, penalties, forfeitures, matters, and things relating as well to pilots appointed by the Corporation of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, as to pilots of the Fellowship of Dover, Deal, or the Isle of Thanet, and to the pilotage by and regulation of all such pilots as aforesaid, and also as to the conduct of all persons in matters of pilotage within the jurisdiction of the said Corporation of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond and the liberty of the Cinque Ports, which are contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament theretofore made, shall be repealed :

“ And by the said Act now in recital it is enacted, that the master of any ship or vessel, not exceeding the burthen of sixty tons, and having a British register, may lawfully pilot his own ship, so long as he shall pilot the same without the aid of any unlicenced pilot, or other persons than the ordinary crew of the ship :

And by the said Act now in recital it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to permit and authorise ships and vessels, not exceeding the burthen of sixty tons, and not having a British register, to be piloted and conducted without having a duly licenced pilot on board, upon the same terms and conditions as are by the said Act imposed on British ships and vessels not exceeding the like burthen :

And by the said Act now in recital it is likewise enacted, that nothing therein contained shall extend to the taking away, abridging, defeating, or interrupting of any grants, liberties, franchises, or privileges theretofore granted by any charters or Acts of Parliament to the pilots of the Trinity-house of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, or the Trinity-house of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or to alter or repeal any provisions contained in any Act of Parliament relating to the pilots of any ports or districts in relation to which particular provision shall have been made in any Act of Parliament as to the pilots or pilotage, or to the pilotage within the limits prescribed by any Act of Parliament relating to pilotage for such ports, or to the burthen of vessels navigating to or from such ports :

And whereas Her Majesty is desirous of placing vessels belonging to the kingdom of the Two Sicilies, being under sixty tons burthen, when coming from, or departing for, any port of the said kingdom, or when coming from, or departing for, any other place in ballast, upon the same footing, with regard to exemption from pilotage, as vessels of like burthen having a British register, and for that purpose to exercise the powers, so vested in Her as hereinbefore is mentioned, in manner hereinafter expressed :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Acts respectively, and of every other power authorising Her Majesty in that behalf, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, as respects the ports and places following, namely,

The port of Kingston-upon-Hull,

The port of Newcastle-upon-Tyne,

And the ports or places being members thereof respectively,

And all other ports and places in respect of which the power by virtue of the said first hereinbefore recited Act is still subsisting, all vessels belonging to the kingdom of the Two Sicilies arriving from, or departing for, any part of the said kingdom, if laden, or arriving from, or departing for, any place, if in ballast, and being of less burthen than sixty tons, which shall enter into, or clear out from, any of the ports or places above named or described, shall be exempted from taking on board a pilot to conduct them into or from any such port or place in all cases where British vessels, being of less burthen than sixty tons, are not required by law to take pilots, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding :

And it is hereby further ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, as respects all other ports and places in the United Kingdom, all such vessels as aforesaid, so arriving or departing as aforesaid, and being under the burthen of sixty tons, which shall enter or clear out of any of such other ports or places, may be, and they are hereby authorised and permitted to be, piloted and conducted without having a duly licenced pilot on board, upon the same terms and conditions as by the said secondly hereinbefore recited Act are imposed upon British ships and vessels not exceeding the like burthen :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

By order of the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade,

J. G. S. Lefevre, Assistant Secretary.

I.—As to the Boards of Examiners.

1. The Boards enumerated in the schedule hereto have voluntarily undertaken respectively to conduct the examinations hereinafter described, according to the arrangements and regulations contained in this notice, which are subject to any future regulations to be from time to time made by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, and published in the London, Edinburgh, and Dublin Gazettes.

2. Each Board of Examiners is to examine all persons who shall apply as hereinafter is mentioned for certificates of qualification as masters or mates of vessels, and shall grant to such of them as upon examination shall be found to be properly qualified certificates accordingly, of the classes following:—

Masters, 1st class.	2d class.	3d class.
Mates, 1st class.	2d class.	3d class.

3. The actual examiners are to be members of the said enumerated Boards, or proper persons appointed or employed by the Boards respectively.

4. In every case the examination is to be carried on by at least two examiners who have had charge of ships or vessels on over-sea voyages.

5. In the examination of the first and second classes hereinafter described, the examiners are to be assisted by a scientific person competently acquainted with the theory of navigation and nautical astronomy.

6. Such examination is to comprise the several points, and be subject to the several conditions hereinafter mentioned.

II.—Conditions and Subjects of Examination.

1. No person is to be examined as a master under 21 years of age, nor as a mate under 19 years, nor who has not previously served at sea for not less than 6 years, as regards an examination for master, and for not less than 4 years as regards that for mate.

2. All candidates for examination must produce sufficient evidence of their ages, and certificates of service and sobriety, general good character and conduct; and particular care is to be taken by the examiners to satisfy themselves as to the habitual sobriety of the party, previous to granting him a certificate of fitness to take charge and command of, or serve as master or mate on board any vessel.

3. They must be able to write a legible hand, and must understand the five first rules of arithmetic.

4. They will be examined as to their knowledge of seamanship, of rigging vessels, stowing holds, &c. in addition to which those to be admitted into the lowest class, or class 3d, must be able to correct the courses steered by compass for variation, leeway, &c. to work what is termed a day's work, to prick off the vessel's place on a chart, either by the calculated latitude and longitude, or by the bearings of the land by compass.

5. They must show that they understand the use of the quadrant or sextant, and can observe the sun's meridian altitude, and therefrom determine the latitude, and are able to work the tides by the age of the moon, from the known time of high water at the full and change.

6. To be entitled to 2d class certificates, candidates must, in addition to all the foregoing qualifications, be able to ascertain the latitude by double altitudes of the sun, and by meridian altitudes of the moon, or of those bright planets or stars, the places of which are given in the nautical almanac. They must understand the care and management of chronometers, and the mode of working out and ascertaining the longitude therefrom, and they must be able to ascertain the variation of the compass by the azimuth of the sun, as well as by the amplitude.

7. To be entitled to a 1st class certificate, candidates will, in addition to all the foregoing qualifications, undergo a more strict examination as to their proficiency in navigation and also in seamanship, under the many difficult circumstances and trying situations to which vessels may be exposed; such as, having to erect and to rig juremasts, when suddenly requisite, or to form rafts in case of being stranded, &c. and in such other cases as call for a higher order of resources. They must have a competent acquaintance with plane trigonometry, a general knowledge of nautical astronomy, including the determination of the latitude by reduction to the meridian, and of the longitude by lunar observations.

8. They must be acquainted with the mode of ascertaining and applying the deviation of the compass, produced by the local attraction, which is of so much importance in all vessels, and particularly in those built of iron or having iron on board in any quantity. They must be practically acquainted with the mode of comparing two or more chronometers, and of rating them by equal altitudes.

9. They must understand the construction of Mercator charts, so as to be able to correct any errors they may detect in those they possess, as well as to insert with precision any new shoals or islands they may discover; and must be well versed in the mode of laying down the required course on the chart.

10. They must also possess a knowledge of mercantile bookkeeping, at least by single entry.

11. In the event of any candidate proving himself to have higher attainments than the foregoing, such as being well versed in great circle sailing, spherical trigonometry, marine surveying, and a more extensive knowledge of astronomy, it is to be noted in his certificate, and is to entitle him to have "class 1, extra," thereon.

12. The examination of mates, who are to be considered as the substitutes for masters in certain contingencies, is, on that account, to embrace the same branches with the master's examination in each class respectively, having regard, however, in its details to the denomination of certificate for which each person may be an applicant.

III.—Times of Examination.

Every candidate desirous of being examined, shall transmit to the clerk of the Board by whom he is to be examined, an application in the form hereinafter described, and thereupon such Board shall appoint a proper time for such examination, not exceeding four clear days from the receipt of any such application.

IV.—Form of Application.

Every application for examination should be made in the following form:—

"To the Board of Examiners of masters and mates of vessels at the port of . . ."

"I, A. B., of . . ., being desirous of obtaining a certificate of qualification as a . . . do hereby signify my request to undergo the necessary examination for that purpose; and I herewith deliver my testimonials of character and service, and evidences of age, as per the following list, viz. :—

3,
&c.

"And I hereby declare that I will accept the said certificate of qualification, subject to the withdrawal thereof by any Board of Examiners under such regulations as are now, or may from time to time be made by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade."

V.—Fees for Examination.

In order to provide for the remuneration of the examiners, or for the incidental expenses of the proposed arrangements, the following fees shall be paid by the candidates examined:—

For a master's certificate - - - £2
For a mate's certificate - - - £1

2. One half of the said fees respectively shall be paid by the candidate at the time of the transmission of his application, and the remainder by candidates deemed entitled to certificates prior to the issue thereof.

3. In case a candidate fails to obtain a certificate, the sum that he has paid will not be returned to him.

VI.—Application of Fees.

2. The one-fourth thus deducted shall be held by such Board to be annually applied towards the expenses of such inquiries as are hereinafter mentioned, or in defraying any other expenses incidental to these arrangements, as the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade shall direct.

3. Each Board of Examiners shall transmit to the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, in the months of July and January, an account of the fees which they have received during the six calendar months preceding, and of the disbursements paid thereout.

VII.—Certificates.

1. The following is to be the form of certificate:—

“By the Board of Examiners of masters and mates of vessels at the port of _____”

occasioned by the misconduct or default of such master or mate, or that such master or mate has been drunk whilst on duty, such Board of Examiners may, if it shall think fit, withdraw the certificate of such master or mate, and declare that the same is withdrawn accordingly.

2. Within forty-eight hours after the resolution of any Board declaring the withdrawal of any such certificate, an authenticated copy of such resolution, together with a full statement of the circumstances under which their resolution of withdrawal has been founded, is to be transmitted to the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade.

3. Any master or mate whose certificate has thus been withdrawn may, within seven days after such withdrawal, after giving notice to the Board of Examiners by whom the same shall have been declared to be withdrawn, and also to the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, refer the matter to the Lords of the said Committee for their decision, which shall be final.

4. Pending such reference, and until such decision, the publication of the withdrawal of the certificate shall be suspended.

5. Every Board of Examiners, before proceeding to make any such inquiries as hereinbefore are mentioned, shall give seven days notice of their intention so to do to the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, and in case more than one such Board shall give such notice, the Lords of the said Committee shall decide by which Board the inquiry shall be made.

IX.—Registration and Publication of Certificates.

1. A registry of certificates and of withdrawal of certificates will be kept, under the superintendence of the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, in some convenient place in London, and will be open to inspection at reasonable hours, on payment of a fee of 6d. for each inspection.

2. The Lords of the said Committee will, from time to time, cause the names of the persons who have obtained certificates in their respective classes, and likewise the names and classes of the persons whose certificate shall have been declared to be withdrawn, to be published in the London Gazette, and also to be transmitted, as soon as conveniently may be, to the Committee of Lloyd's Register, and the Society for Registry of Shipping at Liverpool.

3. This publication will take place, so far as conveniently may be, within fourteen days after the certificates or declarations of withdrawal shall have been sent to the Lords of the said Committee.

4. The Committee for managing the affairs of Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping have undertaken to denote in their list such of the masters of vessels therein named as shall have obtained certificates, by affixing the figures, 3, 2, 1, 1 Ex., according to the class of certificate.
