SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Her Majesty's most gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners, to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, February 8, 1870.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE have it in command from Her Majesty again to invite you to resume your arduous duties, and to express the regret of Her Majesty that recent indisposition has prevented Her from meeting you in person, as had been Her intention, at a period of remarkable public interest.

The friendly sentiments which are entertained in all quarters towards this country, and which Her Majesty cordially reciprocates, the growing disposition to resort to the good offices of allies in cases of international difference and the conciliatory spirit in which several such cases have recently been treated and determined, encourage her Majesty's confidence in the continued maintenance of the general tranquillity.

Papers will be laid before you with reference to recent occurrences in New Zealand.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The estimates for the services of the approaching financial year, are in a forward state of preparation. Framed with a view, in the first place, to the effective maintenance of the Public Establishments, they will impose a diminished charge upon the subjects of Her Majesty.

The condition of the Revenue has answered to the expectations which were formed during the past Session.

Her Majesty trusts that you will be disposed to carry to its completion the inquiry which you last year instituted into the mode of conducting Parliamentary and Municipal Elections, and thus to prepare the materials of useful and early legislation.

My Lords, and Gentlemen.

It will be proposed to you to amend the laws respecting the occupation and acquisition of land in Ireland, in a manner adapted to the peculiar circumstances of that country, and calculated, as Her Majesty believes, to bring about improved relations between the several classes concerned in Irish agriculture, which collectively constitute the great bulk of the people. These provisions, when matured by your impartiality and wisdom, as Her Majesty trusts, will tend to inspire among persons with whom such sentiments may still be wanting, that steady confidence in the law and that desire to render assistance in its effective administration, which mark Her subjects in general; and thus will aid in consolidating the fabric of the Empire.

We are further directed by Her Majesty to state that many other subjects of public importance appear to demand your care; and among these especially to inform you that a Bill has been prepared for the enlargement, on a comprehensive scale, of the means of National Education.

In fulfilment of an engagement to the Government of the United States, a Bill will be proposed to you for the purpose of defining the status of subjects or citizens of foreign countries who may desire naturalization, and of aiding them in the attainment of that object.

You will further be invited to consider Bills, prepared in compliance with the Report of the Commission on Courts of Judicature, for the improvement of the constitution and procedure of the Superior Tribunals of both original and appellate jurisdiction.

The question of religious tests in the Universities and Colleges of Oxford and Cambridge has been under discussion for many years. Her Majesty recommends such a legislative settlement of this question as may contribute to extend the usefulness of these great institutions, and to heighten the respect with which they are justly regarded.

Bills have been prepared for extending the incidence of rating, and for placing the collection of the large sums locally raised for various purposes on a simple and uniform footing.

Her Majesty has likewise to recommend that you should undertake the amendment of the laws which regulate the grant of licences for the sale of fermented and spirituous liquors.

Measures will also be brought under your consideration for facilitating the transfer of land, for regulating the succession to real property in case of intestacy, for amending the laws as to the disabilities of members of Trade Combinations, and for both consolidating and improving the body of statutes which relate to merchant shipping.

While commending to you these weighty matters of legislation, Her Majesty commands us to add, that the recent extension of agrarian crime in several parts of Ireland, with its train of accompanying evils, has filled Her Majesty with painful concern.

The Executive Government has employed freely the means at its command for the prevention of outrage, and a partial improvement may be observed. But although the number of offences, within this class of crime, has been by no means so great as at some former periods, the indisposition to give evidence in aid of the administration of justice has been alike remarkable and injurious.

For the removal of such evils, Her Majesty places Her main reliance on the permanent operation of wise and necessary changes in the law. Yet she will not hesitate to recommend to you the adoption of special provisions, should such a policy appear, during the course of the session, to be required by the paramount interest of peace and order.

Upon these and all other subjects Her Majesty devoutly prays that your labours may be constantly attended by the blessing of Almighty God.

[This Order is substituted for that which was published in the Gazette of the 8th instant.]

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 410th section of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854" it is enacted "that upon the completion of any new lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may by Order in Council fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the master or owner of every ship which passes the same or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof, and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means and subject to the same conditions, in, by and subject to which the light dues authorized to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected:"

And whereas the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond have erected a new lighthouse on the Wolf Rock, off the Land's End, in the county of Cornwall, and a light is already exhibited therein:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that, from and after the date of the present Order, there shall be paid in respect of the said lighthouse for every vessel, whether British or foreign, which may pass or derive benefit from such light, the toll of four-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on an oversea voyage, and one-sixteenth of a penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on a coasting voyage.

The said tolls shall be levied by the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, subject to the regulations and exceptions contained in the New Consolidated Table of Light Dues, sanctioned by an Order in Council, dated the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and to the gross abatement or discount of fifty per cent. mentioned in an Order in Council, dated the twenty-ninth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

Arthur Helps.

[This Order is substituted for that which was published in the Gazette of the 8th instant.]

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Meads, in the parish of Eastbourne, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas in certain extremities of the said parish of Eastbourne, and of the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne, sometime part of the parish of Eastbourne aforesaid, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and chapelry district respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Eastbourne, and of the said chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate at Meads as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, with the consent of the Reverend Henry Michell Wagner, Clerk, Treasurer of the Cathedral Church of the Holy Trinity of Chichester, and as such Treasurer the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Eastbourne, and with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Pitman, Clerk, the Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Eastbourne, and as such Vicar or Incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Eastbourne, and of the said chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John, situate at Meads as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Meads,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Thomas Pitman, the Reverend Charles Dennis Charlton, Clerk, the vicar or Incumbent of the parish of Laughton, in the said county of Sussex, and in the said diocese of Chichester, Frederick Brodie, of Uckfield, in the county of Sussex aforesaid, Esquire, William Brodie, of Eastbourne aforesaid, Esquire, and John Carrington Palmer, of Eastbourne aforesaid, Esquire, their heirs and assigns for ever, in whom as trustees it is provided that such right of presentation and appointment as last aforesaid should be vested under and according to the provisions of a certain indenture or articles of agreement, bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, made or expressed to be made in pursuance of the said Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, which said indenture or articles of agreement is deposited in the registry of the diocese of Chichester.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Meads, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Eastbourne, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, and also all that contiguous portion of the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne, some time part of the parish of Eastbourne aforesaid, which said portions are together bounded on the west by the parish of East Dean, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the south and on the south-east by the sea, on the east by the district chapelry of Saint Saviour, Eastbourne, some time part of the parish of Eastbourne aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the north partly by the last-named district chapelry, and partly by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of Mead's-road, opposite to the south-eastern end of Compton-place-road, at which point the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Saint Saviour, Eastbourne, from the chapelry district of the Holy Trinity, Eastbourne aforesaid, is joined by the boundary dividing the last-named chapelry district from the parish of Eastbourne aforesaid; and extending thence, south-westward for a distance of thirty-four chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the said Meads-road (thereby following in part the last described boundary), to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'M. St. J. C. C., 1869, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of the same road, at the eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 645 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Eastbourne, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 780 upon the same maps; and extending thence westward to such boundary stone, and continuing thence still westward and in a direct line for a distance of three and a half chains to a boundary stone, inscribed 'M. St. J. C. St. J. C. C. 1869, No. 3,' and placed on the north-eastern side of a certain occupation road, which leads from the close numbered 772 upon the said maps, into the high road leading from Meads to East Dean at a distance of five chains to the north-west of the said high road; and extending thence first south-westward to, and then south-eastward along the middle of the said occupation road to its junction with the same high road; and extending thence first generally south-westward and then generally north-westward for a distance of one mile and a quarter, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said high road to the boundary which divides the said parish of Eastbourne from the parish of East Dean aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.
